

On Load

Only two more days of on load to go!

Even the WESTWIND decided to join the on load party.

"OK guys, that's pallet number 1,253,402 or was it pallet 1,253,403?"

"I don't care how long we stand here, I still don't think it's going to move by itself!"

It seemed as though the pallets and crates would never stop coming.
