

San Juan

The BEAR's first dodger - a gift from the friendly folks at the Coast Guard base in San Juan.

"Who the &@! is Jack Bailey?" an eager BEAR crew crowd asks while investigating the contents of these red and white cans on a balmy beach. First Hollywood, now here in San Juan. This Jack Bailey character must really be famous!

The Officer's Club in San Juan provided a great place for members of the crew to gather and just plain have a good time.
