

Sept -- 7 --
 As the incoming sea raised the boat the cox'n gave her full speed astern. Backing under full power, the sturdy craft lunged free and returned to the convoy group.
 At the control boat we caught the Coast Guard salvage boat and once more headed for the beach.
 We arrived offshore in time to see the first troops to hit the beach from landing barges.
 Once on shore they quickly deployed out from the sand dunes and began a stealthy advance through the broken forest.
