

S DIVISION

Anything from a cold cut sandwich to a ten ton boiler could be furnished by this division which was made up of storekeepers, cooks, steward's mates, and ship's service men. Such necessities as pay, food and clothing came under their jurisdiction. It isn't hard to see why these lads were among the most popular aboard.

