

....LANDING CRAFT

But . . . manning small boats meant more than just going along for the ride. VP's and LCM's had to be ready to go over the side at any time; and every trip ashore called for more work from the "L" Division. Saddest deal of all was that liberty in the Pacific meant "turn to" for the boat crews.

