

BUT IT WASN'T ALL WORK...

It couldn't have been with hundreds of sailors aboard. We had our bull sessions on the fantail, our victory celebration on the mess deck, and our pinochle games wherever four men and a battered deck of cards could get together. . . . And who could ever forget the finger game . . . or the stolen sack drills?

