

View from lawn in front of Newport CG station shown CG-57005, present fireboat, CG-60005 and picket boat CG-38696 in slips.

Full profile of the FREEDOM secured on her station. Flags and fish pole antenna belong to CG boats tied up behind fireboat.

Snapshot of old BRIGHT crew at Newport. Left to right: Graves, Harris, Howe, Snavely, McCarthy, Smith, Gross, and Brown.

Here the BRIGHT shows off her ability to throw water, has forward monitor and four hose lines aft churning up bay.

Present fire crew at Newport lines up formally for group picture. They took over the FREEDOM when SEABISCUT was put out of service.

Bow on view of Newport CG station seen from deck of fireboat in slip. Station is on Collins Island once owned by James Cagney.