TRAILER UNIT NO. 6 LIVES AT HAMMOND HEIGHTS

Like all Fire Division trailer units, the crew of TU-6 has built its own living quarters up from scratch. When the seven original crewmen (Berkline, Haggard, Aune, Davis, Zimmer, Pawlus, and Hieb) moved into the old abandoned office building of Hammond Lumber Company, they had to wash the place out with a fire hose before they could use it. But when they had finally finished working the place over, they really had something. Now Chief Gates and some of the Fox Dogs spend some of their nights on duty there, the training detail makes Hammond Heights its off-duty headquarters and Mr. Pifer has a suite of rooms upstairs. Crew: Pawlus, Turner, Drucman, Mankhey, Williams, and McJimsey. Relief Crew: Ondriska, Olazewski, and Musso.
