

Chief Specialist Earl Howe and Mr. Pifer talk situation over after vegetable oil plant fire is under control. Both men are soaked from nozzle spray and grimy with smoke and soot. Note lines of fatigue in their faces. Fire occurred on June 21, 1943.