

CAFE FIRE

Terminal Island's Fish Harbor is a hot spot for sudden fires. Flimsy frame-buildings, many of them built by the Japs before the war, make easy tinder. Pictures on this page are of one nearly-serious fire in that area. A small cafe and the rooms over it were gutted. Adjoining buildings were saved by Coast Guard and city firemen.