

Little America V Digs In:

RACE against time finds MCB swinging hammers to raise interconnecting tunnels that will serve also as storage

"warehouses." Bulky SnoCat gets preheating treatment for use last sortie into a twilight snowstorm at L.A.V.

ROLLING in the barrel, bringing in fuel oil from snowy tunnel cache. Right, building a wassigan as a one-man sled during the long winter night. These units were used by the trail party that went deep into Marie Byrd Land.

TIME OUT for talk (left) to home folks through ham radio contact, for spiritual revival (center) with Holy Communion, for social enjoyment (right) during buffet lunch celebrating Bastille Day in honor of French expedition.