

UNLOADING operations were a bit rough. It was the earliest a ship had ever penetrated the ice, October 28, earliest before that was December 7, 1912 when a Japanese ship had arrived in the Ross Sea. D-4 Cat rests on ice (right) after transfer from GLACIER's cargo hatch.

NOW YOU SEE HIM, NOW YOU DON'T: NAVY PHOTOGRAPHER SHOOTS MOVIES FROM BOW OF ICE-DOUSED GLACIER.

HELICOPTER SHUTTLE BETWEEN GLACIER AND KAINAN BAY ICE BARRIER KEPT SHIP AND SHORE CREWS ON TOES.