

Hard-working Harry Marks, undoubtedly the most known personality on Ellis Island, could be counted on for good advice to new-comers to the Rock and was especially adept at arranging social events for the benefit of the enlisted men.

