

FOURTH PLATOON

CRAIG W. GARRABRANT -- Bashing Ridge, New Jersey

A Psychology major at Rider College, Craig did not have quite enough military bearing to qualify him for the Academy. However, he is the Fourth Platoon's nominee for permanent OC-OOD and will probably have a ball when he takes over Mr. Slade's gym crew.

WILLIAM J. GRANT, Alexandria, Virginia

Bill majored in Business at American University. The only OC who spends his liberty weekends with his wife and still be back in the barracks by 2400 hours. He applied for duty in the Seventh District to troll for refugees in the Florida Straits.

PAUL L. HARRIS, Union City, Pennsylvania

Paul graduated from Grover City College where he majored in Physical Education. He was the only officer candidate to sack out on the deck during Saturday morning room inspections. He hopes to be assigned as Merchant Marine Wahini Inspector in Hawaii.

JAMES B. HESS, JR., Spokane, Washington

Jim graduated from the University of Washington majoring in Personnel Management. "The Computer" will probably be intergrated with the West Coast Amver. We wish him good sailing... er...steam...er...shoring... or whatever.

TERRY J. HOUSE, Studio City, California

Terry was graduated from U.C.L.A. with a major in History. He liked Restracen so much he returned for a second engagement. Will hob-nobbing with the Admiral on the Commandant's plane really get him assigned to Headquarters?

DAVID L. JARVIS, Grover City, Pennsylvania

Dave graduated with a major in Forestry from the University of Pennsylvania. He's been trying for years to become Smoky the Bear, but all he has succeeded in becoming is Platoon Petty Officer - twice. He hopes to be assigned to the Mackinaw as Damage Control Officer. He has plans for growing his own shores along side the captain's palm tree.

FRANK J. KEARNY, Shawnee Mission, Kansas

He majored in Business Administration at the University of Kansas. Frank hopes to be assigned to any ship, so long as it is permanently dry-docked in St. Louis. Has anyone seen a sunflower on Ocean Station Charlie?

ROBERT M. KLINE, Long Beach, California

A graduate of California State College at Long Beach, Bob majored in Business Administration. He lost his job as Platoon Guide when he led the Fourth Platoon into Wromley Creek. He has applied for Personnel Procurement at the Whiskey a Go Go, a Twelfth District annex.
