

THE LAST OF THE FIFTH

Arthur A. Whiting, III -- How about that, a III in the Fifth Platoon. You'd never know that a guy with such a snobbish sounding name is the easiest one to bum a cigarette from. He's a very friendly and patient person. He has to be because he often lowers the colors with Walker. One of the few Virginia natives in the company, Art hails from McLean, Virginia and obtained a B. A. in Sociology from Randolph-Macon College.
