

PETER N. MANSFIELD Peter came to O.C.S. from Antwerp, Belgium. He is the only highschool drop-out known to have received both a B.A. from Stanford University and an M.B.A. from Columbia University. Being a city boy, Peter was not overjoyed with the prospect of Cape May, New Jersey, his first duty station.

JOHN W. McQUISTON II John and his wife, Robbie are originally from Memphis, Tenn. John earned a B.A. from Southwestern at Memphis and a J.D. from Vanderbilt. He is a member of the Tennessee Bar Association. His favorite pastime was sleeping in the Tiger Cage as Platoon Commander. John's first duty will be Marine Inspection in San Francisco.

JAMES A. MEEK Jim and his wife, Lynn and daughter Merrill come from Atlanta, Georgia. Prior to O.C.S. Jim received an A.B. and M.B.A. from Georgia State College. He is headed by the WLB Acacia out of Port Huron, Mich. His one aspiration is to chip paint with the men.

ROBERT B. NESMITH Bob and wife Sharon are from Louisville, Kentucky. Nezzie earned an A.B. from the University of Evansville. Soon to become a father, Bob's favorite sport (at O.C.S.) is practicing pullups in the Tiger Cage. He has been assigned to duty at the Coast Guard Institute after O.C.S.

GEORGE S. NILES Stumpy could most commonly be found doing pull-ups on his towel rack. From Nashua, New Hampshire, George will report for his first assignment aboard the WHEC Campbell at Portland, Maine. He received a B.A. in Art from the University of New Hampshire.

MICHAEL J. O'BRIEN Originally from North Hampton, Mass., Mike will report to the WAGB Edisto out of Boston for his first duty. Mike or O.B. received a degree from Dartmouth and is presently stockpiling Dramamine and hoping they don't serve peanut butter for breakfast aboard the Edisto.
