

BRAVO THREE was inevitable. When we first arrived, Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) had just reached its point of prominence in the ecliptic.

We are the children of the sea. Some, like Cliff Goudey, come from Maine, where the sea crashes on a granite shore with a peal of thunder. Some, like Bryan Genex, arrived from the foaming surf painted gold by the California sun. Bob Olberg was on Palau in the Pacific. Dave Desiderio was on Ocean station. The Coast Guard is indeed the proper home for us. For we of BRAVO THREE are the children of Aquarius.

WILLIAM J. BACKUS Bill earned the nickname "White Whale" for his prowess in water polo and callies. From Notre Dame and Cleveland, Bill is headed toward an MIO billet in St. Louis.

RONALD C. BALDWIN "Big Red" is from New Orleans and Denison U. He's headed toward the DEW line at Sault Ste. Marie. How's your Eskimoese, Ron?
