

ROGER D. CHEVALIER Roger and his roommate Ralph worked as a team in establishing much new policy at OCS. Rog goes back to New York, with a new set of teeth, to "procure" for the Guard. Ralph will probably tag along.

WILLIAM J. BARRETT Bravo 5's very own Harvard Peacenik hails from Boston. Bill was planning on becoming Coast Guard liaison to VISTA at Huntington, W. Va., but instead, he got orders to Honolulu in district supply. Tough luck!

STEPHEN M. BURDICK The "Burdick-Bird" came by way of Alameda Boot Camp where he was introduced to commands (close ranks, march!) and the Guard. Drew the great white fid Chincoteague as his initial assignment.

THOMAS E. CARROLL B-5's very own BATCOM came to Yorktown from school in Tennessee. Tom is currently following in his brother's footsteps by drawing the Tanager out of OCS.

JOHN A. DELVES John, who was unanimous choice for final OCGOOD, comes from Dickenson College and Boston U. He'll use his journalistic talent to edit AMVER in New York. Tell them about metacenters, John.

DAVID A. DESIDERIO Dex will always be remembered for his "airy" views on OCS. A sonorman, he came from the Taney and leaves for the big white Pontchartrain in Long Beach.
