

ROBERT C. LORIGAN

Rob's military bearing made the rest of us look like so many spineless reserves. Among the most enthusiastic of OCs, he is something of an endangered species—a man who enjoys the military. He's going to MSO, Corpus Christi.

RICHARD N. MacEWAN

Rich's college ring bears the inscription, "Let each become all he is capable of being." A noble philosophy that, unfortunately, the Coast Guard does not subscribe to. We at least think that Mac's capable of more than headquarters.

MIKE D. OSMUN

The old adage states that the stupidest question is the one you don't ask. Mike set out to prove that philosophy wrong. Are we correct in assuming, then, that Mr. Osmun has orders to Fifth District headquarters?
