

PATRICK A. NEUMAN

Pat won't win any awards for his military bearing but not for lack of effort. He came to OCS to acquire some self-discipline and he leaves as a world class Kick-Me player. Now this round peg is going to a square hole at headquarters.

JEFFREY K. KARONIS

At the pistol range, Jeff assassinated hundreds of worms with his shooting. On the cutter Ironwood out of Adak, Alaska, he will represent our first line of defense against the Red menace. We'd all better learn some Russian.

STEPHEN R. KENNEY

Steve resigned a commission in the Air Force Reserve to repeat OCS. While he impressed us as the first Company Commander, he positively awed us with his incredible sixteen week skate to the end. As designated aviator, he will abandon the "real guard" to fly HH-3F helicopters.
