

GARY W. SMITH

Gary's goal in life is to buy a truck and haul freight cross country. Until that happy day, however, he'll have to be content as a commissioned officer in the US Coast Guard. For the time being, he's going to the Ninth District headquarters in Cleveland.

WILLIAM C. TANNER

The only OC to bring his tennis whites to Yorktown, Bill hoped for lots of court time . . . Wrong. His cherubic face belied a fearsome mettle that he once expressed by eating a beer can. His orders are for Brooklyn Supply Center.

CHRISTINE E. QUICK

Chris buoyed the platoon through the good and bad times with her enthusiasm and her singing. Unfortunately, she was never able to play "Semper Paratus" on her guitar. She can sing her way to Long Beach and Eleventh District headquarters.
