

MICHAEL E. YOUNG

A former EMT in New York, Mike was the guy to have around in case of accident. And he was right there too, at Alpha-one's first accident when on the second day of indoc week he twisted his knee running down a flight of stairs. Healed at least, he's going to headquarters where, hopefully, the elevators are running.

BARBARA A. ZSELECZKY

Barbara's only problem was that she was too nice to be an OC. She incurred the wrath of Miss Riley by smiling at guard mount, smiling in ranks, smiling while joining ranks and smiling while smiling. She has a good reason to smile, however, her orders are for Seventh District headquarters in Miami.
