

Assistance in breaking ice was rendered by the USCGC BURTON ISLAND.

A voracious pirate, the skua raids Adèle penguin rookeries, eating eggs and killing hundreds of young chicks. It also feeds on the shrimp like red Krill and even preys of fledglings of other skuas. Its wing spread is up to four and a half feet.