

28 JAN 80

Debarked 15 volunteer crewmembers to assist in offloading the USNS TOWLE which would arrive the next day.

In preparation for the TOWLE's arrival, the Navy had set a series of charges along the edge of the ice wharf. When the charges were detonated, the rough edge of the ice wharf became a safe mooring for the TOWLE.

