

WELLINGTON NEW ZEALAND

Wellington, New Zealand has practically become GLACIER's southern home port. We spent ten days in Wellington, including Christmas day. Thanks to the New Zealanders' hospitality we all felt very much at home.

Many crewmembers chose to travel in this mountainous country and enjoyed sharing tales of adventure with their newfound friends.

GLACIER hosted a Christmas party for the children who live at Our Ladies Home of Compassion Orphanage.

The natives, thank goodness, were friendly.

Wellington is a bustling metropolis similar to San Francisco. Earthquakes occur frequently, the terrain is very hilly, and there is even an active cable car.
