

"DEPARTURE DAY"

We departed Portland 23 October, enroute to San Diego. As with all departures, it was a sad day. Family and friends bade us farewell and best wishes for a safe voyage. Many of our Portland friends made this departure special as the "City of Roses" flag flew from our yardarm.

"You have the Conn XO!"

Relatives and friends bid farewell to "Big Red"

Crewmembers man the rail as Glacier leaves Portland

Line 3 is brought onboard as Glacier departs on her 29th Antarctic adventure

Varied emotions are displayed at our departure