

The old adage that "an army travels on its stomach" is just as true at sea as it is on land—as Commissary Officer Lieutenant R. T. Swem, USCGR, will tell you. The holds are loaded with 400,000 pounds of meat, fish and poultry; half a million pounds of fresh vegetables, 76,000 pounds of butter; and over one million pounds of dry provisions—just to be sure no one will go hungry during the trip.
