

V-J DAY

15 August, 1945, latitude 037° 25' North, longitude 002° 42' East. The Pacific war is over and the world is at peace. Each of us celebrated in his own way, all of us thankful and deep inside ourselves a little bit proud; proud that no matter how insignificant our duties, the performance of them had in some small measure contributed to victory.