

SWIFT BOATS

One of our duties in our patrol areas was to be mother ship to U. S. Navy Swift Boats. These fast 50 foot boats were opening up many of the rivers and canals held by the enemy. Since there was no base close by they came to us for fuel, water, ammunition, food, and rest. We often repaired their boats or gave medical aid to the wounded.

