

Valdez Alaska

POLAR SEA's last mission of AES/AWS-90 was a joint service port security exercise in Valdez, AK. The operation involved units and personnel from the Coast Guard, Navy and Air Force.

SN Boyer was happy to be in Valdez.

Far right — Photo by an unknown photographer taken in a Valdez bar which led to the subject's husband being detained by the police for shooting off too many bullets too close to town in the middle of the night. A sea story.
