

LEFT: ENS Boniface obviously rules main control with an iron flat, a Diet Coke and a high forehead. BELOW: ENS Matt Breuer with latest flame.

ABOVE: CWO Pat Calpin, ED, and the DCA LTJG Brian Nelson. Pat "Calpin" the ricochet ET has been known to maintain a three-foot hover over the console in Main Control for a full four hour watch.

ENS Tscharrpl: Marine Science Officer, Morale Officer, Deck Watch Officer, Helo Control Officer, Landing Signal Officer, Catholic Lay Leader, Public Affairs Officer, and all around good guy, will soon be an Ensign hater too.
