

HUMP DAY ... is the celebration marking the halfway point in trip. POLAR SEA took a day off and hove to off of the ship channel for a little ice liberty and some fun and games.

BELOW: A little diver bending, BMC Olson defeating MK2 Hunter in the arm wrestling contest.

The skipper shows his true colors.

At the auction crew members bid on a dinner with the CO. Other items up for bid were: souvenirs from port calls and Antarctica, morale flights which included stick time in the helos, etc.
