

Initiations

Seafaring tradition dictates that all those who choose a life underway must endure a transition from land-lubber to salty dog. On the way south, more than 100 people were initiated into the mysteries of the deep, thus ensuring safe passage by King Neptune. Once in Antarctica, still others entered the Realm of the Penguin.

Above left: Wog Caskey answers to charges read by Royal Judge Chris Jarvis. Left: "Flying Bridge, Lookout: Davy Jones has not been sighted!"

EM2 Irving, EM3 Iloimgren and MK2 Anderson just before they get soaking wet.

EMC Oja surfaces just after his ice water bath.