

Hump Day

Then came the day some weren't sure would arrive. Uniforms were slucked and tennis shoes and shorts donned. The many activities available included basketball, checkers, darts, a golf ball driving contest, a pie-eating competition, and an auction that evening. Two items that brought in the most money were stick time on one of the helos and a seat in the Captain's chair.

Right: Only the most hearty of souls can withstand the Ultimate Driving Range.
Below: I want to fly like a Skua.

Above: SN Adams tries desperately to maintain the deckies' advantage.

Right: MST2 Rudolph and ET3 Lambeth put everything they have into the pie eating contest.

SN Snyder provides a little motivational therapy.

