

For those of you who missed BM3 Roemer's song here is the first verse and chorus:

When I was 18 I went into the Recruiter's office and told him I wanted to join the Coast Guard? He told me I had to sign my name on the dotted line, and when he seen that I had signed my name on the dotted line he looked at me and said, you, (chorus)

*Chorus:
S--I for brains M----- F-----, every day born a sucker.*
