

Opposite page, clockwise from top left: A seagull pacing the ship in the Bering Sea; A little ice on the ship never hurt anyone; A little bow breaking action for a nice salt water washdown; A nice calm bay in which to wait out the storm.

Counterclockwise from top right: RUSH turns icebreaker in the Bering; Dutch Harbor on a nice "sunny" day; A sea gull takes a ride and leaves behind a mess; Our national bird, the Bald Eagle, getting its lunch in Kodiak; A nice friendly seal taking a rest on a small ice floe.
