

Clockwise from top left: Liberty is liberty no matter where you find it, even on St. Paul Island; a nice heartwarming view of the ship in Dutch Harbor; Even ships resort to graffiti.

Opposite page, clockwise from top left: LTJG Sackler and RMC Wilbert catching a few brews for lunch; SN Wyatt happy because he is on land again; Our illustrious small boat bringing the helo blade to the ship.

Above: A friendly sign in a far away place.

