

ENGINEERING OFFICER

LCDR James D. JOHNSON enlisted in the U. S. Coast Guard in April 1958, at Minneapolis, Minnesota. After recruit training and school at the Groton, Connecticut Training Center, duty aboard the NANTUCKET Lightship and CGC YAKUTAT. He was assigned to Officer Candidate School. After commissioning in January 1962, Mr. Johnson served in engineering assignments aboard CGC'S UNIMAK, NORTH-

WIND, STORIS, EDISTO And SOUTH-WIND, and engineering billets ashore at CG Base, Astoria, Oregon, MIO Buffalo, New York, Midet, and Erie, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Johnson was married in 1965 to the former Sally PAGE of Walla Walla, Washington. They have two children, Christine and Timothy.

Engineering officer conferring with the Captain.