SHIP'S OFFICERS

The officers assigned to Southwind and her air wing have performed in a manner which reflects credit upon themselves and upholds the highest standards and traditions of the naval services.

Whether an officer of the line or one assigned to engineering, medical or aviation duties, these officers have provided effective and capable leadership. They have guided and molded the men under their command and provided them with the knowledge and know how to perform their many tasks. Through their efforts a sense of pride in themselves and their uniform was instilled in the crew. Their devotion to duty has contributed measurably to the maintenance of high morale, discipline and good order on board Southwind.

Officers of Southwind and her air wing, "We salute you."
