

BANGKOK...

ALL EXPENSES PAID

Morale is an all-important facet of shipboard life, and among the more ingenious morale-building schemes was the famous Wheel-of-Fortune contest. The three winners were awarded five day's rest and relaxation in Bangkok while the rest of the crew remained on station to wrap up the final days of our deployment. Runners up were awarded painted and bronzed Wachusett ship's plaques.