

CROSSING THE LINE

We headed further north towards the realm of Boreas Rex and the land of Polar Bears where the Bluenoses received their first welcome to the Arctic.

Initiation into the Land of Polar Bears and Ice is always looked forward to with smiles from those whom have been there before and with apprehension by those who know, by the stories they have heard, that their life is just about to change.