

GRONNEDAL

The scenery was like nothing many had ever seen. Our annual courtesy call to our Danish friends was brief, but the hospitality as always was warm and full.

With the traditional toasts, trading and renewing of friendships complete, Westwind focussed attention on a south bound passage around Cape Farwell.

