

No coast recreation was undertaken by the morale committee and its chairman Mr. Urbanowicz. As a product a variety of sports including basketball, baseball, football, and volleyball were played in ports that supported a respective team. When there were no teams the Wisconsa's athletes divided in half and made their own competition.

Although our teams took no league titles they won their fair share of games and had the majority of fun. Time out for Sam Magoo!

